BRINGHURST WINS HOPEFUL

COLORS OF J. N. CAMDEN VICTORIOUS IN VALUABLE EVENT AT SARATOGA.

Little Nephew Is Held at Odds-on for the Race, but Camden Colt Leads All the Way and Scores with Ease.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 16.—Three of the six races decided here this afternoon were stakes and they were equally divided between the east, the west and Canada. The Kentucky colt Bringhurst, owned by J. N. Camden, won the most valuable event of the day when he was first home in the Hopeful Stakes, worth $4.100 net to the winner. Little Nephew ruled an odds-on choice for this race, but when it came to the racing, it was Bringhurst all the way under a strong pull.

The Canadian steeplechaser, Wickson, won his third straight race of the meeting and his second stake when he was first home in the Saratoga Steeplechase, but the win was a fluky one. Penobscot, the favorite, although poorly handled at different parts of the race, took the lead on the far turn and had the race well in hand in coming to the last jump. Then Wolke let him swerve badly in making the last obstacle and he almost crashed through the fence. By the time Wolke got Penobscot straight again. Wickson had secured a good lead and, although a tired horse, the latter won by six lengths, while Gold Plate lasted long enough to beat Penobscot two lengths for second money.

S. N. Holman, manager of the King Edward Park track in Montreal, and also the new Dorval Park track in the same city, which opens its inaugural meeting next month, was a visitor here today and he has sent out conditions for the most valuable race to be run next year. Holman says that he intends to have racing on an extensive scale at Dorval Park and with this end in view, announced the International Derby, of $20,000, for three-year-olds, one mile and a quarter, to be run in 1914. The entries to this race will close on November 15 next and $2,000 will go to the second horse, $1,500 to the third, $500 to the fourth and the residue to the winner. The race will be by subscription of $250, which entitles the nominator to name three horses, but only two may start. The starters in the race rate to pay $150 additional. Holman, who is a hustling manager, was the pioneer in running stake races at a half mile track, for at a recent meeting at King Edward Park he carded seven stakes of $1,000 each.

H. D. Brown, manager of the Laurel track, who

King Edward Park he carded seven stakes of $1,000 each.

H. D. Brown, manager of the Laurel track, who has been here ever since the meeting started, today denied the report sent out from Detroit that he had sold out his interests at Laurel to James Butler and the last named, who reached town today, also denied that there was any truth in the rumor. Mr. Brown did say, however, that he had been asked to put a price on his stock by several persons, onne of whom is willing to pay what he considers a proper figure. He says he is willing to sell at any time if he secures his price. As to the report that he was to take over the Charleston track and manage it next winter he would not commit himself as he said he was not at liberty to speak on the matter at the presnt time.

Andrew Miller, secretary and treasurer of the Saratoga Association, took two purses today when he won the opening race with Trifler and the last with Undaunted, both of which were handled by Byrne. They were both well supported in the betting and their owner profited handsomely.

James Butler today sold his horse Dartworth to J. L. Holland.

Jockey James Butwell was not riding this afternoon and said that he will not again be seen in the saddle until trainer William Garth sees fit to let him ride. Butwell said that his riding during the last two days was permitted by Mr. Garth, who allowed him to ride out all his engagements. Butwell was of the opinion that the trouble would be adjusted in a few days.

Jockey Tommy McTaggart was taken ill with cramps during the afternoon and had to cancel his engagements, while the services of a physician were twice needed to attend him.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Hildreth reached town last night with a party of friends and today both were busy renewing acquaintances at the track.

Fred Alpers, the well-known gentleman rider, was among today's arrivals and he will ride in the races for amateur riders. He will have the mount on Flying Yankee on Monday.

In order to put a stop to some of the rough riding that has prevailed here ever since the meeting opened, another partol judge has been appointed and W. R. Midgely has been selected to fill the nosition. He has had considerable experience in this line and was himself a rider of considerable skill many years ago.

The Jockey Club stewards met this afternoon and will meet again on Wednesday next to take up the Wilson matter again.

August Belmont departed this evening for a trip to the mountains to last several days.

August Belmont, J. Livingston and Frederick Johnson have been negotiating with Hugh Penny for the contract he holds on the promising apprentice J. McTagyart.

ENTRIES FOR STAKES FORESHADOW FALL RACING SEASON OF SURPASSING BRILLIANCY IN KENTUCKY

Cincinnati, O., August 16.—General Manager John Hachmeister, of the Latonia Jockey Club, is highly elated over the manner in which the four stakes that are to serve as the particular racing features of the Latonia fall meeting, October 20 to November 8, have filled. Entries for these events closed last week and tabulation of the nominations has just been completed. The total of the entries is 214, representing an average of 53, as compared with 39 in 1912. While the numerical strength of the list is pleasing to Mr. Hachmeister, it is from the quality of the nominations that he derives the greatest satisfaction. The cream of the racing thoroughbreds of America, both young and old, have been named for the various events and it really looks as if this fall's racing in Kentucky will set a new standard for brilliancy and high class of the sport. Recent meetings in Kentucky admittedly have little to be desired, but it seems safe to predict, in the light of the material that will be available this fall, that all records will be surpassed, both here and at Louisville.

For the Latonia Autumn Inaugural Handicap, $2,000 added, 1 1-16 miles, to be run October 20, 54 entries were received, as follows:

The Douglas Park stakes also filled in a manner that is highly gratifying to Manager Hachmeister. For the Douglas Park Inaugural Handicap, $2,000 added, one and one-sixteenth miles, forty-nine nominations were received. This stake will be run on September 23, to mark the opening of the fall racing season at Louisville.

For the Louisville Cup, $2,500 added, two miles, to be run October 4, there are thirty-three eligibles, to be run October 4, there are thirty-three eligibles. The remaining stake at Douglas Park, the Beechmont, for two-year-olds, with selling conditions, received sixty-eight nominations.

Louisville, Ky., August 16.—Secretary Lyman H. Davis today announced the list of subscribers to the $15,000 Kentucky Endurance Stakes, four miles, to be run at Churchill Downs on the opening day of the ten-days fall meeting, which will begin on Wednesday, October 8 and close on Saturday, October 18. The Kentucky Endurance Stakes this year has broken previous records, inasmuch as it has twenty subscriptions, whereas in 1911 and 1912 it had but nineteen each season. The naming of the horses to represent the subscribers in this eyent is not necessary on the part of the nominators until September 6, but this season many of the subscribers have already announced their entries. The list this season shows a large number of representative turfmen and the eastern representation is much in excess of that in the previous two seasons that the big race has been run. This year the race will have added money to the value of $10,000 and in excess of that in the previous two seasons that the higr race has been run. This year the race will have added money to the value of $10,000 and in excess of that in the previous two seasons that the race was $7,500, which was given by the New Louis ville Jockey Club last season. With the twenty subscriptions at $100 and not less than eight or ten starters at $250, the Kentucky Endurance Stakes this season will be the richest race run on the American turf in 1913, with the exception of the Futurity, and the winner will attain a high standing in the list of the year's money-winning horses. The twenty subscribers this season, with the horses they have named, are:

The first Kentucky Endurance Stakes, run in 1911, was won by Messenger Boy, owned by Mrs. Eugene Lutz, in 7:14½, which was the record four-mile time up to that date. Last year Sotemia, owned by Mrs. L. A. Livingston, won this race in the record time of 7:10½.

The brilliant array of entries this season for this rich event insures a remarkable race and with fair weather and good track conditions, the four-mile record may be still further reduced on October 8 next.

weather and good track conditions, the four-inlie record may be still further reduced on October 8 next.

Manager Winn anticipates as great an attendance as ever witnessed a race in Kentucky when the Endurance Stakes of 1913 is run.

Col. M. J. Winn, manager of the New Louisville Jockey Club and the Jockey Club Juarez in Mexico, has returned from a trip to New York. He reports that many eastern turfmen assured him that they would send their racing stables to Louisville this fall and thinks that the prospect for the coming fall racing season in Kentucky could not be more flattering. Many owners of the leading stables now racing at Saratoga assured Colonel Winn they would ship to Louisville at the conclusion of the meeting there. Some of the eastern owners whose strings will be seen at the local tracks this fall have never before had representation at the Louisville courses. Among these are S. L. Parsons, Santo Sotille and H. P. Whitney, the latter a turfman of international renown. Mr. Whitney, owns among other famous horses, the remarkable performer, Whisk Broom II., the only horse that ever won those three great races, the Metropolitan, Brooklyn and Suburban Handicaps. Whisk Broom II. has not been entered by Mr. Whitney for the Kentucky Endurance Stakes, having broken down recently.

J. O. Keene has engaged stable room at Churchill Downs for sixteen horses and will shortly ship J. N. Camden's big stable fiere from Saratoga. He has been assigned stable L at the Downs. Among the performers that trainer Keene will bring here are J. N. Camden's big stable fiere from Saratoga. In the big string he will bring here will be the high-class three-year-old Yankee Notions and the famous sprinter Sprite. Jockeys Glass and Karrick are connected with this stable and both will be in the saddle frequently at the local courses this fall.

The racing string of Thoedore Abadie has arrived at Churchill Downs from Latonia. He has seven horses in training. J. C. Cahn, whose string is still at Latonia, expects to ship here shortly. M

FAST RUNNING AT WINDSOR

TRACK RECORDS EQUALED BY RATINA AND USEEIT AT CANADIAN COURSE.

Lochiel Is Returned Winner of D. B. I. & W. Ferry Co. Handicap, for Which Buckhorn Rules an Overwhelming Favorite.

Detroit, Mich., August 16.—The opening of the final meeting of the Windsor Jockey Club for the present season took place today under conditions that augur well for its success. Despite the extremely hot weather, a large gathering turned out and forty-four layers were in line to attend to their wants. Well-balanced fields went to the post in a majority of the events and keen contests resulted. This was especially true of the feature race, the D. B. I. & W. Ferry Company Handicap, in which Lochiel beat Flora Fina a scant length in a desperate stretch drive. There were only three starters, with Buckhorn ruling an odds-on favorite. Lochiel set a fast pace from the start, with Buckhorn in close pursuit. In entering the homestretch, Buckhorn carried Lochiel wide, but in the last sixteenth the latter kept bearing over to-the inside and to many it appeared as if he seriously interfered with the chances of Flora Fina, which was closing fast along the rail. Caliahan was forced to pull the latter up, but despite this, he failed to lodge a claim of foul against the winner and the placing was permitted to stand as the horses finished.

The D., B. I, and Windsor Ferry Handicap is a stake of recent institution, its history being as follows:

The track was in perfect condition as was evidenced by the time made in the different races. In the opening dash J. B. Resposs' filly, Ratina, equaled the track record for five furlongs by running the distance in 1:00, and in the third Useelt equaled the track record of 1:12 for six furlongs.

Among those who witnessed the sport was Paul Powers, who a few years ago was associated with Willie Shields in the ownership of several useful horses.

R. J. Mackenzie reserved four boxes today and had as his guests several prominent trotting horsemen, among them "Pop" Gears and Nat Ray.

Judge Charles F. Price arrived from Atlantic City this morning, looking much improved by his short vacation by the seashore.

G. M. Johnson, who was expected here from Butte, wired that he had changed his plans and had sent his horses to Kentucky.

Francis J. Pons has thrown his good racer, John Furlong, out of training and will give him a rest probably until next spring.

Silver Tone bolted to the inside fence in entering the homestretch in the opening race and gave jockey Obert a nasty spill. Obert fortunately escaped without any broken bones, but was forced to cancel his remaining engagements.

Adair & Baker and James Boden shipped their horses from Fort Erie to Ottawa, where they will be rested for that meeting.

M. J. Conran shipped his stable from Hamilton to Ottawa.

The following-horsemen have made known their intention of sending their horses from here to Kenucky at the conclusion of the present meeting: T. P. Hayes, Gallaher Bros., F. J. Grefer, W. W. Darden, George Ham, T. J. Brown, J. Schreiber, W. O. Jopiin, J. B. Respess, J. W. Johnson, R. P. Marshall and R. J. Mackenzie.

Donerall was taken sick with an attack of indigestion last night and for a time it was feared that he would die. The horse finally responded to treatment and is on the road to recovery.

Johnny Lewis, who booked at Butte during the recent meeting there, was an arrival this morning. He was accompanied by his crew and cut in this afternoon.

The layers doing business here today included Horace Paul, T. J. Shaw, M. Harris, N. Shapiro, A. S. Valentine, W. Matthews, I. Howard, C. Penn, George Rose, Henry Hanf, Al Hanf, Ted Coburn, A. STAKES FOR THE LAUREL FALL MEETING.

Nine valuable stake races to be run over the Laurel track in the course of the Maryland State Fair's fall meeting, are to close for entries at midnight of Monday, September 1. The managers of Laurel racing have from the start been sagaciously liberal in providing money to be run for and adhere to this policy in the events now proffered. The main event is the American Grand National Handicap of $5,000 guaranteed, for three-year-olds and over at a mile and an eighth. Next in point of value are the Washington Handicap at a mile and an eighth and the Baltimore Handicap at a mile and a sixteenth, to each of which $2,500 is added, both being for three-year-olds and over. The Annapolis Juvenile Stakes for two-year-olds at three-quarters of a mile has $2,000 added. The other five events all have $1,500 added. In all, this stake program constitutes an excellent offering that should attract corresponding patronage. Full conditions of the races on offer are published in this issue of Dally Racing Form and all are commended to owners and trainers east and west.

THE CASTLETON STUD DISPERSAL SALE.

The Castleton Stud Dispersal Sale.

To the lover of horse breeding the catalogue of the horses belonging to the estate of the late James R. Keene, which are to be sold at Madison Square Garden. New York, beginning September 2, Is a decidedly interesting publication. For one regretable thing it marks the obliteration of the famous Castleton Stud, but natural regret in this case is mitigated by, the conforting reflection that the superb horses to be sold will remain in this country, to assist in the restoration of a much reduced but highly important breeding industry. There, have been many notable sales in the past in this country, but such as the Belmont, Lorillard, Marcus Daly and other important dispersal sales, took place when racing, was in a condition of, great prosperity, and high prices were a certainty in advance. Conditions are so different now that lively curiosity as to what such a horse as Colin will bring under the auctioner's hammer will be widespread. He is the star of the sale presumptively, but so far as stallions are concerned, this Keene sale is a remarkable affair, with such other famous ones as Celt, Delhi, Disguise, Voter, Peter Pan, Hippodrome, Sweep and Ultimus to be also disposed of to the highest bidder. Voter is the veteran of this distinguished band, having been foaled in 1894, but the others are all young horses and bound to exercise an important influence hereafter in the propagation of others stamped with their own splendid attributes.

Besides the nine stallions named, thirty-one broodmares will be sold. Of these fifteen have been mated with Voter, including Ballot's dam, Cerito, four have been bred to Celt, three to Disguise, three to Sweep, two to Hippodrome, one each to Ultimus, Ben Brush and Delhi, and one to Ballot and Colin. The latter is the young mare Playmate, by Peter Pan—Biturica, which raced in England last, year under the stallions named last spring prior to being brought sold, this year are also to be sold. Elsewhere particulars of this notable impending sale are pub

HORSES FOR MINERAL SPRINGS.

W. C. Clancy, Green B. Morris, I. Striker, N. Moody, Sam Beckman, E. W. Moore and Mikel Bros. are among the latest applicants for stabiling accommodations at Mineral Springs for the fifteen-days meeting which will begin next Thursday. They collectively have about fifty horses. Thirteen horses beleonging to S. H. Kunz and J. Ryan that have been training at Hawthorn, were shipped to Porter yesterday. Horses have been arriving during the past few days from Canada and other points.

An improvement that will please the patrons of the Indiana course is a shed over the long concrete walk that leads from the train to the grandstand. This shed will provide shade during the warm days and furnish shelter from the rain in case of bad weather. Some 75 new stalls have been constructed.

ANACONDA RECORD IS REDUCED.

Anaconda, Mont., August 16.—Miners' Union Day saw one of the largest crowds at the track here since the days of the late Marcus Daly. A good card was down for decision, including a handicap over the Futurity course, in winning which Sir Fretful, in a furious drive with New Haven, reduced the track record by three-fifths of a second. Daddy Gip took the second feature of the day, outgaming Envy, the pacemaker, in the final racing.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The horses of the Beverwyck Stable are to be sold at auction at Saratoga on Labor Day.

It is reported that the stallion Fitz Herbert, which was to be sold at auction by the estate of Charles Kohler, has been disposed of at private sale to Clarence Mackay.

J. Kelly, who was connected with E. S. Gardner when that Tennessee turfman raced Charlie Eastman, was recently married in Montreal, where he has been making his home for the past two years. Steimele & Hofgesang of Louisville have put their delivery wagon thoroughbred, Pinhooker, in the hands of C. W. Carroll, trainer for A. B. Spreckels, to be prepared for filling his Kentucky Endurance Stakes engagement.

G. M. McSweeney has sold Carrillon to E. Clancy

Endurance Stakes engagement.

G. M. McSweeney has sold Carrillon to E. Clancy of Guelph, Ont., and the horse will race in his new owner's interest at the Hillcrest half mile track at Toronto, where racing will begin Wednesday and continue for seven days. This track is said to be in improved condition.

A revival of steeple-chasing for the autumn meetings in Canada is in sight. The Strathcona Steeple-chase at Montreal has twenty-six entries and the Hendrie Memorial, to which three-year-olds are not eligible, has twenty nominations. It is probable that the Woodbine showing will be even better.

The first arrest for alleged bookmaking at Sara-that the Woodbine showing will be even better.

The first arrest for alleged bookmaking at Saratoga was made a day or two ago, when a deputy sheriff arrested a man who was laying odds outside the race track. He was arraigned in court and District Attorney McKelvay gave him twenty minutes to catch a train and get out of town. This was taken advantage of and the charge was not pressed.

The special two-year-old race that is being arranged with the idea of bringing together all the crack youngsters will be carded as an attraction for the contemplated extra day of racing at Saratoga on Labor Day. It will be a handicap subscription event of $200 cach, with $1.500 added. The distance will be six furlows. Those expected to start include Old Rosebud, Pennant, Little Nephew, Southern Maid, Stromboli, Gainer and Roamer, The proposed long-distance race at two and a quarter miles for older horses will be programmed the same day.

ANACONDA ENTRIES.

The figures under the heading "Rec." in the entries below show the best time of each horse at the distance, since January I, 1911, no matter where it finished. In cases where record was made on other than a fast or good track, abbreviations show track conditions.
